

“Self Love through the Sacred Feminine”
A Women’s Retreat on Orcas Island with Jo Jayson
September 23-28, 2018

You are invited to join a unique gathering of interesting and inspirational women... healers, teachers, artists & entrepreneurs... a collective of wise women who are coming together for four full days of self-care, art, music, creative and catalytic conversation, held in nurturing settings on beautiful Orcas Island.

“Self Love through the Sacred Feminine” is designed by artist and teacher, Jo Jayson and hosted at Heartwood House by Gretchen Krampf. We have invited the gifted guidance of some of our favorite island teachers/healers to offer bodywork and ceremony.

Our intimate gathering is limited to ten invitees and will be centered at Heartwood on Orcas, a waterview home in Eastsound, the main village on Orcas Island. Orcas is called the Gem of the San Juans and you’ll have many opportunities to discover her splendor. Moran State Park and Turtleback Mountain offer incredible hiking trails, waterfalls, mountain lakes and broad vistas.

Our intention is to provide restorative and creative moments throughout our days together. You will be nurtured with a Morning Stretch, Meditation and Breakfast. There will be a Morning and Afternoon Session presented by Jo on her Thirteen Guides (see below)

Afternoons will be spacious, with optional Healing and Activity Offerings of Bodywork, Acupuncture, Reiki, Flower Remedies and Personal Intuitive Readings. A gifted collective of Women's Wisdom Guides and Bodyworkers, for individual afternoon sessions, will be available and we'll provide a menu of offerings upon Registration.

OPTIONAL Guided Kayak and Nature Tours are also available on FRIDAY afternoon. Wander into Eastsound and enjoy our shops and galleries...or enjoy time in the sauna and hot tub, then take a nap. Heartwood's Heron Garden welcomes you to renew your Spirit in the sauna and hot tub. Afternoons from 12:30 until 4:30 are YOUR TIME.

Delicious breakfasts and some dinners are included, using fresh, locally-sourced products and produce, prepared with loving care and effort made to accommodate special dietary needs. Our team bring many years of culinary practice and they'll be designing our meals, featuring fresh, local produce and products. You can indulge in our Island's excellent restaurants for lunch and dinner on select days.

::THE FLOW of our DAYS TOGETHER ::

This five day retreat in the serenity and magic of Orcas Island, will be a unique opportunity to take time out of one's busy life and focus just on you. In these 5 days we will be learning the channeled Sacred Feminine wisdom and guidance to Self-Love. In morning and late afternoon workshops we will be following the path laid out in Jo Jayson's award winning book "Self-Love through The Sacred Feminine"

Each day we will be aligning with different aspects of the beautiful and life changing guidance of 13 Sacred Feminine archetypes Jo has channeled and painted. We will explore in depth these aspects of self-love and how so many of us struggle and suffer in our quest to love ourselves unconditionally. Offering love to oneself brings miracles and shifts into our lives that we can only imagine. As women we are the caretakers and compassionate vessels for humanity and yet too many women fail to offer that compassion to themselves.

This retreat offers you the space and time to connect deeply with yourself, to bond with 10 other women in sacred sisterhood and to connect with the magical healing energy of Orcas Island.

JO JAYSON Internationally acclaimed intuitive artist, teacher and author, Jo Jayson was born and educated in the UK and began her career as a muralist in London, Sydney, and New York. In 2008, she began expressing Divine Feminine energies into her own paintings, completing her much-loved "Goddess Chakra" series. In 2011, she unveiled the beginning of her "Sacred Feminine" series of paintings, unfolding a body of work that contained thirteen channeled feminine energies. Jo has emerged as an internationally intuitive artist and spiritual teacher, helping women all over the world find empowerment, healing, and inspiration. She is the author of the award-winning book "Self-Love Through the Sacred Feminine" a companion to her Sacred Feminine Oracle cards. Jo sells her paintings, prints, guidance cards, and meditation cd's worldwide and regularly offers self-healing workshops and classes online and around the United States.

*On Wednesday evening, Jo will lead us in a "Painted Prayers" process. In this 2 hour workshop you will enter the sacred space of your own imagination where your desires, wishes and intentions lie waiting to be activated, expressed and manifested. Through a meditation technique I will take you through, you will be able to access your own deepest intentions for yourself. From this place you will be able to hear the whispers of your soul and bring forth all that you have dreamt for yourself and access your highest potentials for this lifetime. Here we connect to our own creative power and work with the potent technique of painting our prayers. This technique is much more powerful than writing down or even speaking our intentions for ourselves. Through the creative process we actually give energy, focus and achieve alignment with that which we desire. One of the many aspects of self-love is the ability to tap into our own innate power and to put our own dreams and desires at the top of the list. This workshop gives you a technique to manifest easily and quickly all that is in your heart and is extremely relaxing, magical, fun and creative. We will be using a variety of mixed media and a special composition to express our own sacred painted prayers.

Comments from our 2017 Retreat Participants

The retreat was a magical experience that exceeded all my expectations. Jo has a way of presenting information in a way that can be received in a deeper more magical way and when you bring 10 women together for an extended time period to explore their understanding of the universe the vibrations during the experience rise extremely high. With vibrations like that, it can help shift/heal/breakthrough anything you want. I feel like the week brought me to the next level of my spiritual growth (which was my intention) and that is something I get to take with me for the rest of my life. Heartwood was beautiful and the food was amazing! Words can't really express how I feel about the retreat, but for the right people at the right time, I think it would be one of the most meaningful life changing experiences. If you find yourself at a fork in the road and something inside you is telling you to go deeper inside, this is perfect, it will help you find your way back to yourself with true and pure love.

Such nourishing love, beauty and magic will be discovered on the Divine Sacred Feminine retreat with Jo Jayson. Supported by a team of professionals providing a sacred space, you can dive deep into the depths of your soul to release and transform. I am so grateful for the powerful teachings Jo has brought forth using her intuitive gifts and artistic talents. Orcas Island is the perfect place to allow yourself to connect with the divine feminine Earth and Spirit within you and around you. It is a life-changing experience you will cherish forever."

I was inspired to attend the Retreat Self-love through the Sacred Feminine after reading Jo Jayson's beautiful book of the same title. Held on Orcas island, the retreat was a special five day immersion into the 13 Feminine archetypes that Jo had channeled. Jo had created glorious, masterful images of the sacred feminine including Mary Magdalene, Joan of Arc, Guinevere, and Kali among others. Each image had a special attribute, lesson, and message that Jo had received. Each day, Jo focused on 4 archetypes, leading us through guided visualization and prayers that she had written from divine inspiration. This process helped me to integrate the attributes from each archetype: self-respect, dignity, self nurturing, courage, compassion and embodiment of the sensuous female body. I was especially touched by the richness of these images combined with Jo's deep understanding of the messages that came through her. I felt privileged to have the luxury of diving deep into this experience through five days of immersion. The retreat was held in a beautiful, peaceful setting of Gretchen's home that was perfect for our gatherings and included nurturing, delicious meals prepared with love and care. Jodi led heart opening movement and yoga in the mornings and Fran facilitated our new Moon Circle ritual. The connection between all 4 facilitators and the 10 participants in the group created a sense of aliveness, joy and synergy. The jewels from this retreat are still reverberating today in my daily life. I feel uplifted and inspired by the rich, profound plunge into the sacred feminine. I notice that the commitment to my own self-care has deepened. I can now truly see myself as a "cup of source" ... connected to one consciousness, as we are all a piece of one spirit. As I navigate through some difficult passages in my life, I see Jo's work as a spiritual guide. I would highly recommend you try this, if you are at all inspired to go to this retreat, do not hesitate!

Jo Jayson's retreat "Self-Love through The Sacred Feminine" was a magical, heart-expanding, joyful journey. If you have an opportunity to work with Jo, please do! It is a true blessing.

The magic of Jo's channeled teachings and divinely guided meditations is that they meet us exactly where we are--whether we are a seasoned practitioner of self-love or are entirely new to the concept, the energies of the Sacred Feminine weave themselves around our hearts and souls, bringing us more deeply home to ourselves.

Jo's extraordinary paintings capture and hold the powerful healing energies of the Sacred Feminine. To be in the presence of Jo and her exquisite art is a to feel wrapped in the arms of the Divine Mother. Held in these energies of unconditional love, compassion and grace, it is impossible not to heal our hearts, release old wounds, and expand into the fullest, most authentic and beautiful versions of ourselves. Jo's mission is to help each and every one of us understand that we are embodiments of Divine light, worthy of deep self-love and profound joy. With wisdom, tenderness, insight, humor, grace, and love, she succeeds in her mission brilliantly. I am forever changed and deeply grateful.

The Self Love Healing Retreat was everything the brochure promised and so much more. There was a wonderful balance of intentional wisdom for body, mind and spirit in each segment. With Jo Jayson's artwork and book as its basis, the retreat gave me a beautiful and gentle way to ponder my past life experiences and present day desires from a higher perspective. In other words, I did indeed learn to love myself more.

Having the retreat at Heartwood on Orcas was more than magical. It felt like I was being cradled in the Divine Feminine.
